

Alexander JFS | A Time for Play BIPOC Scholarship Addendum

Alexander JFS & A Time for Play are proud to offer a scholarship to attend all Season 6 trainings of the Alexander JFS | A Time for Play: Play Therapy Training Series. This scholarship grants the recipient free entry into all 20 trainings and allows the recipient to complete homework assignments to earn a full 150 hours of Play Therapy specific education.

Alexander JFS recognizes that historic inequities and systemic bias have limited the opportunities for BIPOC persons to attain the Registered Play Therapist credential. The primary aim of this scholarship is to diversify the Play Therapy profession and expand the benefits of Play Therapy to BIPOC clients and families. Scholarship applicants should demonstrate how they serve vulnerable populations or aim to support the BIPOC community. Applications may be submitted between May 1 – 31, 2024.

Scholarship Requirements

Recipient must:

- Be a licensed mental health professional in good standing
- Agree to attend all Play Therapy trainings in-person
- Agree to complete all homework assignments
- Agree to complete the Impact Research pre-test and post-test
- Submit a copy of their resume for review
- Submit a one-page letter of interest specifying how the applicant will use Play Therapy specifically to treat BIPOC populations

All scholarship materials must be submitted via email to PlayTherapyTraining@alexanderjfs.org by May 31, 2024.*
